DATES FOR YOUR DIARIES

NSPCC Number Day – Friday 7th February 2025

On Friday 7th February, St Andrew's will be celebrating NSPCC Number Day again. Over the past few years, our pupils have loved being involved in our maths-themed activities, listening to maths-related stories and participating in TTRS battles during the day. Pupils from Reception to Year 6 and invited to 'Dress up for Digits' on this day. This means having a maths or number themed outfit – it could be a sports top that features a number or something more creative such as decorating your own t-shirt or even dressing up as a domino, dice or calculator.

As this day is organised by the NSPCC, part of the day is about celebrating and supporting all of the amazing work the NSPCC do to keep our children safe. The children will spend some of the day learning about this charity. We will be collecting donations of £1 per child for the NSPCC. The link can be found on ParentPay.
